ISSUE 11

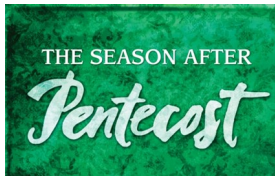

From the Vicar's Desk:

November is the month we traditionally celebrate Thanksgiving.

COVID is on the decline, weather is wonderful, it's time to hold hands and worship together. Celebrate with a Thanksgiving luncheon here in church.

Speaking of our council, my SAWL contract to serve Trinity expires each November. The council has renewed my contract permanently pending our Synod Bishop's approval, so I have a lot to be thankful for, too!

This month will draw our time after Pentecost to a close; as well the ELCA's liturgical "Year C" examining the Gospel of Luke. The words "savior" – "salvation" and "to save" are mentioned especially frequently with Luke. What I sincerely love about this book is the main subject of Luke's presentation: the person of the Lord Jesus as Son of Man, the true and perfect man who lived as the only just among the unjust and who suffered death for them - on the cross. In no other Gospel do we find the Lord Jesus in prayer and speaking about prayer as often as in Luke. This author Luke was probably the only non-Jew called of God to write a Bible book. Luke is the longest of the four Gospels. By also authoring the Acts of the Apostles, Luke has written the greatest part of the New Testament after the Apostle Paul. Except of special days, like Reformation Sunday last month when we dressed up in red, and later this November 20th when we will celebrate Christ the King dressed in white. Our church has been dressed in green during the time after Pentecost for almost five months...a long time

All this green changes on November 27th where we move into a new church year, the ELCA's liturgical "Year A" and we dress the church in blue to begin the new season, Advent. For Christians, the new church year begins with a wake-up call. Christ is coming soon! Advent helps us remember that time is not linear, but circular. We move forward and somehow we also return again and again to where we have been before. Christmas is right around the corner in December. Before we leap into that manger scene next month, now is a great time for everyone to ponder what kind of ending this new beginning will be.

Cool Whip Candy

Ingredients:

- 2 bags Milk Chocolate Chips
- 8 oz. Tub Cool Whip
- 24 oz. Dark Chocolate Melting Wafers

Instructions:

1. In a microwave bowl, pour Milk Chocolate Chips, heat 1 minute on high. Remove from Microwave and stir. Return to microwave 1 minute more. Stir after each cycle until morsels are fully melted.

Line an 8 x 8 cake pan with parchment paper, be sure to make it large enough to go up all sides

2. In a larger bowl spoon the Cool Whip, then begin folding the melted Chocolate Chip morsels into the Cool Whip. The chocolate may harden into flakes, this is not a problem.
3. Once the chocolate has been folded into the Cool Whip, pour it in the prepared pan and put in freezer for 30 minutes. Remove from freezer cut in equal sized squares.
4. Melt the chocolate wafers in a microwave bowl, stirring after each cycle for as long as needed.

Using a fork or skewer, dip each piece of frozen candy into the melted chocolate and set on a parchment covered tray.

5. keep the candy in the freezer until ready to serve. It is best to be cold until serving. These can be turned into truffles by dropping small spoonful onto a tray and freezing them.

ENJOY!!

Malachi 4:1-2a

Psalm 98

2 Thessalonians 3:6-13

NOVEMBER 20, 2022; Christ the King Sunday

Jeremiah 23:1-6

Psalm 46

Colossians 1:11-20

Luke 23:33-43 Amid scoffing and slander from those who sarcastically call him Messiah and King. Jesus reveals that to be Messiah and King is to give one's life to others. Here he uses his power to welcome a despised criminal to paradise but puts his own death into God's hands.

NOVEMBER 27, 2022; First Sunday in Advent

10:15 a.m. Traditional Liturgy; Communion

Isaiah 2:1-5

Psalm 122

Romans 13:11-14

Matthew 24:26-44 Jesus describes his second coming as a sudden, turbulent event that will bring about deep change to our normal, day-to-day lives. Therefore, he urges people to stay awake, be aware, and wait expectantly, because the Son of Man will come unannounced.

First Sunday of Advent. The new church year begins with a wake-up call: Christ is coming soon! In today's readings both Paul and Jesus challenge us to wake from sleep, for we know neither the day nor the hour of the Lord's coming. Isaiah proclaims the day when God will gather all people on the holy mountain and there will be no more war or suffering. Though we vigilantly watch for the promised day of salvation, we wait for what we already have: Christ comes among us this day as the word and meal that strengthens our faith in the promise of God.
